THE FINE ARTS BUILDING • 410 SOUTH MICHIGAN AVENUE • CHICAGO, ILLINOIS that, in our opinion, the violin bow sold by our firm to Mr. Herbert Schultz of Jersey City, New Jersey was made by JOHN NORWOOD LEE of Chicago whose brand it bears.

The round shaft is of orange-brown pernambuco. The original frog is of ivory with gold mounts and has decorative mother-of-pearl starburst inlays. The original button is of ivory with gold bands with pearl dots on each facet and has a pearl end eye. The wrapping is of whalebone and the headplate is of pearl. The overall length is 74.8 cm.

The bow is an excellent example of the maker's work and is in a new state.
